Box Technologies Named as the UK's Latest Certified Motion Partner

Motion distributor since 2003, Box Technologies is now certified to repair Motion Tablet PCs

AUSTIN, Texas and Oxfordshire, UK – 12th March 2010 – Motion Computing®, a leading provider of integrated mobile computing solutions, and Box Technologies, a value-added distributor of Motion® Tablet PCs in the United Kingdom, announced that Box Technologies is now Motion's latest Certified Motion Provider (CMP). As a Motion CMP, Box is now certified to perform both in-warranty and out-of-warranty repairs on Motion Tablet PCs, adding a new convenience for customers located in the UK.

"Box Technologies has played a critical role as Motion has expanded its position as the leading provider of slate tablet PCs worldwide," said Nigel Owens, VP of worldwide sales for Motion. "As a premier Motion value-added distributor, Box Technologies, already serves as an important extension of Motion in the UK and with its history of excellent customer service and support is an ideal CMP that will streamline repair processes in the UK."

Box Technologies is a leading provider in a diverse range of technologies and services aimed at industry sectors including; retail, public sector, utilities and transport and logistics. With a focus on vertical markets where mobile, powerful and rugged devices are required, Box is an expert in building solutions around the rugged Motion J3400 and F5 Tablet PCs.

The Motion J3400 and F5 Tablet PCs are ideal computing solutions for mobile workforces. Rugged, lightweight and highly mobile with multiple integrated features, the tablets enable users to access, gather and share valuable data across mobile environments. Now available with the advanced tablet PC capabilities in Windows 7, mobile users that rely on the ability to compute in the field will realize even more productivity benefits.

"Seven years of working as a key Motion distributor has given Box the ability to provide excellent service and support for Motion's complete line of tablet PCs," said Stuart Walker, managing director, Box Technologies. "Now as a CMP, we can extend our capabilities to offer excellent repair services made possible through Motion's training and parts resources."
